NOVARTIS

We are looking for current students that have finished their first or second year of PhD in the areas of life sciences. CEITEC will select the top students to spend a summer internship in Basel, Switzerland at the Novartis campus for 3 months in 2015. The program will teach students how working life is in a top pharmaceutical company, plus many soft skills to enhance the experience of developing scientists.

More information at www.ceitec.eu/novartisprogramme

All travel, accommodation, and a stipend will be provided.

To qualify, you must be affiliated with CEITEC and a current PhD student.

Please apply by 27 July 2014, and submit supporting documents to Basel2015@ceitec.cz:

1. CV or resume
2. Letter of motivation (1 page)
3. Research question of interest
